

With more than 20 years in the industry, Confidence Studio has become a highly regarded studio in the Kitchener Waterloo area. While previously owned by Joanne Flanagan, her dream of providing inclusive and quality dance education is continued by Jessica Harrison. Our goal at Confidence is to give every student a place to find their love of dance while also providing quality technical training with a focus on storytelling. Whether you are a beginner student or advanced senior, our goal is to help your love of dance flourish.
